

The Office of Workforce Policy and Planning (OWPP) was created as the organizational locus for external workforce development activities within CDC/ATSDR (a recommendation of the CDC/ATSDR Strategic Plan for Public Health Workforce Development, 2000). The OWPP assures coordination and accountability for implementing the strategic plan, oversees the development of workforce policies and standards, and convenes partners